Going back to School

by: Evelyn Maldonado

It's finally here, we are going back to school!!! Yay!!

Even though things will be different, this is still a very exciting event. For the hybrid model, half of the students will be going on Monday and Wednesday, the other half on Tuesday and Thursday.

Students will still have to wear masks, clean their desks regularly, and get temperature checks daily. Online school has been a great learning experience for everyone and will still be because if a student is not in person then they are online. Hopefully by this time next year everyone will be going to school altogether, five days a week.

We're Going Back To School

SCHOOL HERE WE COME!!!

May everyone stay safe and healthy!!

Happy St. Patrick's Day

History of St. Patrick's Day

by: Evelyn Maldonado

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17th. In Ireland this day is considered a religious holiday. They attend church in the morning and celebrate in the afternoon. St. Patrick was made a slave at the age of 16 but he escaped and brought Christianity to Ireland.

St. Patrick's Day is celebrated with a parade, music and fun.

LUCK O' THE IRISH

"May the strength of God pilot us, may the wisdom of God instruct us, may the hand of God protect us, may the word of God direct us. Be always ours this day and for evermore."

-St. Patrick
